Lutheran Synod here.

"From various parts of the country the loyalty of American Lutherans has been questioned." The resolution reads. "They have been charged with spreading German propaganda, and particularly with making their schools subservient to the cause of German autocracy and militarism. We the Atlantic district of the Missouri Synod, assembled in annual convention, most emphatically repudiate such institutions and accusations as coming either from ignorance or from malice."

More than 185,000 Lutheran men are engaged in American was service, the resolution declares, adding: "There is no more democratic institution in the world than the Lutheran Church."
